

Buckner Retirement Services Weekly Update November 24, 2020

Dear Buckner Residents and Families,

This year, I am thankful for much that was not on my mind a year ago.

I'm thankful for increased PPE and easier access to rapid testing. I'm thankful for Zoom and FaceTime. I'm thankful for toilet paper and hand sanitizer. I'm thankful for handwritten letters, car parades, the support of strangers, and the perspective to appreciate the little things in life.

But most of all, I am thankful for everyone who makes up the Buckner family: associates who come to work each day because they are called to serve senior adults through the good times and the bad; family members who find the most creative ways to express their love; and you, senior living residents who are truly inspiring in the way you meet the greatest of challenges with grace and dignity.

Please be safe this holiday. If you leave your Buckner community, reach out to any Buckner associate when you return for advice on ways to mitigate risks for your friends and neighbors.
